

BRANDON SANDERSON

The background of the cover is a detailed illustration of a woman with long, dark, wavy hair. She is wearing a purple cape over a tan and gold outfit, and black boots. She is standing on a stone ledge, holding a glowing, ethereal sword aloft in her right hand. The sword has a blue and white glow. To her left, there are swirling, golden, smoke-like or energy-like patterns. The setting appears to be a stone wall or a similar architectural structure.
