

OATHBRINGER

The background of the cover is a dramatic scene. On the right, a woman with long dark hair, wearing a purple cape and a tan dress, stands on a stone ledge. She holds a glowing, ethereal sword that emits a bright light. To her left, a large, brown, winged figure with intricate patterns on its wings is partially visible. The setting is a stone wall or structure, with a dark, stormy sky in the background featuring lightning bolts.
